

Half a Pot of Coffee

(Key of E)

B7 E
The garden is a jungle --- I haven't mowed the lawn since early May
B7 E
And the trellis needs repairing --- half the wood is rotten and decayed
C#m G#m F# B
So many things that need attention --- so many errands left to do
E B B7 E
But I've got half a pot of coffee left to drink and all that I can think about is you

B7 E
So I turn to read the papers to find out what the papers think is news
B7 E
But I can't seem to concentrate on someone else's narrow-minded views
C#m G#m F# B
And in a while I'm way past caring --- if it's false or if it's true
E B B7 E
For I've got half a pot of coffee left to drink and all that I can think about is you

C#m G#m
I think about the way you used to laugh and smile a lot
A E
And I think about the way you flicked your hair
C#m G#m
Now all there is to look at is a half filled coffee pot
F# B --- B7
And the memory of a life we used to share

B7 E
There's a picture in the paper -- of a girl who looks a little bit like you
B7 E
She's holding up a bottle -- and she's saying it's her favourite shampoo
C#m G#m F# B
And I'd bet she's never tried it ---- though I haven't got a clue
E B B7 E
But I've got half a pot of coffee left to drink and all that I can think about is you
B7 E
Yes, all I want to think about is you
