

LIKE YESTERDAY

Intro: Em – A7 – D – D7

G D Em Bm
I've known this road all my life ----- every house and every tree
C G Am D
-- And though it's seen many changes ----- it's just the same to me
B7 Em A7 D
-- For all the old familiar faces ----- many left and gone away
G C D G
-- They still live in my memory ----- like yesterday

G D Em Bm
I see the old gothic house on the corner ----- they killed in sixty-nine
C G Am D
-- In its place stands a row of pink boxes ----- with no thought for design
B7 Em A7 D
-- And the old rag and bone man ----- with his cart-horse and dray
G C D G
-- They still live in my memory ----- like yesterday

F C G D
IN THIS ROAD I'VE KNOWN SO LONG ----- WHERE ALL THE OLD GHOSTS LINGER ON
Bb F C ----- D7
-- NOTHING'S EVER REALLY GONE FOR GOOD

(INSTRUMENTAL VERSE)

G D Em Bm
There's the house where I was born ----- where so much has changed
C G Am D
-- Just my father's magnolia ----- is all that remains
B7 Em A7 D
-- But all the long summer evenings ----- and the friends who would stay
G C D G
-- They still live in my memory ----- like yesterday

F C G D
IN THIS ROAD I'VE KNOWN SO LONG ----- WHERE ALL THE OLD GHOSTS LINGER ON
Bb F C ----- D7
-- NOTHING'S EVER REALLY GONE FOR GOOD

G D Em Bm
I remember in nineteen fifty-eight ----- when I was only five
C G Am D
-- Running back along the pavement ----- in and out of every drive
B7 Em A7 D
-- And though those memories of childhood ----- are so far away
G C D G
-- They still live in my memory ----- like yesterday

End: Em – A7 – D – D7 - G
