

MIXED EMOTIONS

A                    E            E7                    A
It was pure imagination ---- kept me running after you
  E            D                                    A --- A7
only looking for sensation ---- never looking for the truth
                  D                                    C#                                    D --- F#≡
riding high on a dream ---- my head up in the clouds
                  A    F#m Bm                                    G9                    E7
but now it seems ----- my life will be empty without you

                  A                                    D                                    A
I'VE GOT MIXED EMOTIONS RUNNING DOWN THROUGH MY SOUL
  E7                                    D                                    E ---
E7
YOU'VE GOT TO MAKE YOUR CAREER WHEREVER IT IS YOU MUST GO A AND I WON'T STAND IN YOUR WAY OR D    A
TRY TO PERSUADE YOU TO CHANGE YOUR MIND
B7    E                                    E7                                    A
--- THOUGH I KNOW IT'LL HURT SOMETIMES--- THINKING OF DAYS GONE BY

A                                    E                                    E7                                    A
Perhaps I should have seen it coming ---- oh, it was plain enough to see
  E                    D                                    A --- A7
perhaps the two of us together ---- was never more than just a dream
                  D                                    C#                                    D --- F#≡
but I was high on that dream ---- my head up in the clouds
                  A    F#m Bm                                    G9                    E7
