

Skylark on an Summer's Evening

(Key of G)

/1 /4 /1 /4
A skylark on a summer's evening --- sunlight through a broken cloud
/1 /4 /1 /5
I watch a tractor heading homewards --- fifty acres ploughed
/1 /4 /1 /4
High above the geese are flying --- off to some far distant place
/1 /4 /5 /1
How I wish that I could see you now --- that I could see your face

/1 /4 /1 /4
I watch the sunlight on the lakeside --- watch the ripples dance and shine
/1 /4 /1 /5
How I wish that I could hold you --- in these arms of mine
/1 /4 /1 /4
Leaves are rustling in the poplars --- telling me that autumn's near /1 /4 /5 /1
How I wish that you were with me now --- that you were with me here

/4 /5 /1 /4
Time is slow and time is lonely --- waiting here for your return
/7 /4 /1 /1
And every night I think of only you
/4 /5 /1 /4
Learning to be patient --- is such a painful thing to learn
/7 /4 /4 /5
But knowing that I'll see you soon will help me see it through

/1 /4 /1 /4
I see a jet plane flying over --- heading for some distant land
/1 /4 /1 /5
How I wish that we were flying --- somewhere hand in hand
/1 /4 /1 /4
Now I feel an east wind rising --- there's a cool chill in the air
/1 /4 /5 /1
How I wish that you were with me now --- that you were with me here
